

Participant Agreement

Step by Step Golf Values (PERFORM)

Power, Excellence, Respect, Faithful, Order, Responsibility, Maturity

(additional information regarding these values can be found at stepbystepgolf.org)

By registering for a Step by Step Golf event, you agree to the following:

- I understand the deposit is a non-refundable tax deductible donation to Step by Step Golf.
- I have read and understand the values set forth by Step by Step Golf and I will honor them with my attitude, behaviors, and words. Failure to do so may result in being asked to immediately leave the premises and a forfeiture of my registration fees.
- I understand this is a competitive golf tournament contested in accordance with USGA rules and Step by Step Golf local rules for the specific venue.
- I will honor the financial commitment and the deadlines described in the tournament information and I understand that missing payment deadlines will result in a $25 late fee. I have read and agree to the cancellation policy.
- I understand this is a team event that requires a specific number of participants. I have confirmed my availability for the event dates and have made proper arrangements with my family and employer. I have no intentions of withdrawing, unless I experience an unknown and unplanned emergency or other situation that should take priority. If it becomes necessary for me to withdraw, I will communicate with Step by Step Golf as soon as possible.
- I will do my best to attend pre-event meetings such as fellowship gatherings through video conferencing.
- I will do my best to understand the details of the event, such as the agenda of activities, tee assignments, tournament format, and scoring of each match.